Copyright Policy

1. Copyright Ownership

Authors submitting to NJDTs retain the copyright of their work. Upon acceptance, authors grant NJDTs an exclusive/non-exclusive licence to publish, distribute, and archive the article in print and electronic form.

Open Access / Author Retains Copyright: Authors retain copyright and grant NJDTs a licence to publish. Articles are published under a Creative Commons licence (CC BY 4.0), allowing others to share and adapt the work with proper attribution to the original authors and source.

2. Licence to Publish

By submitting a manuscript, the corresponding author confirms, on behalf of all co-authors, that:

- The work is original and has not been published elsewhere;
- All necessary rights and permissions for any third-party material (figures, tables, images, data) have been obtained and are stated in the manuscript;
- The author(s) grant NJDTs the right to publish, reproduce, and distribute the article in all current and future formats and media.

3. Third-Party Material

Authors are responsible for obtaining written permission to reproduce any previously published material (text, images, tables, data) and must credit the original source. Evidence of permission may be requested by the editorial office prior to publication.

4. Self-Archiving / Author Rights

Authors may:

- Share the accepted manuscript (post-peer-review, pre-copyediting) on personal websites, institutional repositories, or preprint servers, with acknowledgment of the final published version;
- Share the final published version if the article is published open access under the applicable licence terms.

An embargo period of 6–12 months may apply to self-archiving of the final published version for non-open-access articles.

5. Plagiarism and Copyright Infringement

Any manuscript found to infringe existing copyright or contain plagiarised content will be rejected or retracted, in accordance with the journal's Ethics & Malpractice Statement.

6. Permissions Requests

Requests to reproduce material published in NJDTs (in full or in part) should be directed to the editorial office at njdts@niet.co.in.
